The company does races all over the country and were looking for a location in the metro Atlanta area. The initial location planned was for a start and end at the PTC3 Church on Hwy 74 with the run taking place mainly within the surrounding neighborhoods. The race company was advised that their proposed route would not be possible as it would create great inconvenience to the surrounding area and neighborhoods along the route. The Bodies Race Co. was advised to move the location to the McIntosh Trail complex to utilize the well-established paths and routes beginning and ending at the complex. At the close of the meeting it was decided that the discussion would continue to use the McIntosh Trail Complex for the run.
